HEALTH OFFICER'S REPORT

To the Citizens of Newport:

During the past year the only contagious disease that gave us any unusual concern was a flurry of about forty cases of Measles during May and June.

So far as we know there were fortunately no very severe cases. Measles is however a disease that should command caution and care at all times. It can become very dangerous.

Scarlet Fever was kind enough to keep away from us during the Spring, the usual time for it to make its appearance.

There were only ten cases during the entire year.

The cooperation of the citizens of the town together with that of the local physicians has been very good during the year and is duly appreciated.

There have been two tuberculosis clinics during the past year at which 67 were examined. Five positive cases were found among 36 new persons examined and are now being cared for either at the sanatoria or at home. The tuberculin test has been given to suspicious cases at the clinic and reactors have been given the benefit of x-ray of the chest.

At the present time 78 patients are being supervised at home and seven patients have received care at the sanatoria during the year. The funds realized through the sale of Christmas Seals pays for this work.

Respectfully submitted.

EDWARD J. MALEY,
Health Officer.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Newport School Board:

I herewith submit my seventh annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

ENROLLMENT

We are still impressed with the fact that the school population in Newport is not decreasing as it is in many other places. In fact, our present enrollment is a little larger than in recent years.

The first grade in the Primary Building is unusually large this year (94). This is too large a number of pupils to be divided between two rooms. Of all the elementary grades the first grade is the one which should have a reasonably small enrollment in each room because the beginners require so much individual attention. In considering relief for this situation we finally decided to construct an additional room in the girls' basement of the Primary Building. This room, although a little smaller than the usual classroom, is very satisfactory and accommodates 25 to 30 pupils. A wooden floor was laid to avoid resting the feet all day on a cement floor. The stone and brick walls were covered with plywood or wall board and a ceiling of wall board was installed to deaden the sounds from the room above. Electric lights were available to supplement natural lighting. A unit heater with a fan was installed in such a way that the air in the room can be circulated so that all parts of the room will be of about the same temperature. We had blackboards and furniture sufficient to equip this room. A bookcase was made by the boys in the shop. The construction of this room cost about $500. It is interesting to note that in four previous years it has been necessary to have three sections of the first grade in the village schools.

Grades 5, 6 and 7 are also large, each having about 100 pupils (Grade 6, 112). Next year the four upper grades will each have 100 or more pupils according to present indications. This means 50 or more pupils in a room except for the little relief given by using the small room, formerly the superintendent's office. This small room could be enlarged a little by removing the partition between the room and the lavatory. The latter is no longer needed. Each of these grades should be in three divisions instead of two.

The high school has a little smaller enrollment than usual on account of the comparatively small senior class. Enrollments in the lower grades indicate an increase in the high school in the years to come.

MUSIC

The music program of the schools is not only being operated successfully, but is expanding and arousing increased interest. Our musical activities fall into three groups: Band, orchestra and glee club. This is in addition, of course, to the regular instruction given under the direction of our supervisor in the grades.

Five years ago the band was reorganized to include players in the Richards School. At that time there were 27 players. Since then the band, under the direction of Malcolm W. Rowell, has increased to 59 players. Rehearsals are held at least once each week and oftener in the fall. During the last summer, a band school was operated by Frank Bush of Claremont and Walter Paskovich, a graduate of Syracuse University. For seven weeks during the summer about 75 children studied and practiced in three groups (beginners, intermediate and advanced). The band plays at athletic games during the school year; also for several outside affairs. The band is endeavoring to secure new uniforms. To date, however, they have been able to secure only the caps.

There is an orchestra in the high school and another in the Richards School, both under the direction of Mr. Rowell. There is need of more players on string instruments in order to make these orchestras well balanced. An attempt has been made to develop interest on the part of the pupils in the string section of the orchestra. Last fall the entire student body had an opportunity of hearing the W. P. A. orchestra of 35 pieces under the direction of Earl Clay. All the pupils in the Newport schools, including the rurals through the cooperation of interested citizens, assembled in the Town Hall and had the experience of listening to a balanced orchestra. This is the first time, I believe, that all the Newport pupils were ever assembled in one place.

In December, selected pupils from the orchestras of six schools (Charlestown, Claremont, Lebanon, Hanover, Newport and Sunapee) united in giving an excellent concert in the Newport Town Hall. There were 82 players in this group directed by Mr. Rowell. It is planned to have the same group give concerts in the other towns also.

There are mixed glee clubs in both the Towle High School and the Richards Junior High School under the direction of our music supervisor, Mrs. Eleanor Young Chapman. Each glee club produces one operetta a year and appears on other programs.

In the high school credit is given to those who take part regularly in the band, orchestra or glee club.

CITIZENSHIP

We are fully alive to the necessity of leading pupils to appreciate the blessings of democracy. Accordingly emphasis is being placed on this in all the grades. Historical and inspirational books have been furnished the schools. Through stories, discussions, dramatization and current events the pupils are led to know how the democratic institutions in our way of life have developed. We are trying to instill correct habits and attitude. It is interesting to note that on several recent occasions when pupils have been at public gatherings the good conduct of our boys and girls has been commended by outside people who have been present as well as by our own citizens.

REPAIRS

Towle High School

The outside woodwork was painted.

Rooms 4 and 5 and the connecting corridor on the first floor were redecorated. The walls had become dark and dingy. The fresh tan color now brightens up the rooms and makes them much pleasanter.

The tops of the laboratory benches were scraped and refinished.

Two additional shower units were installed in the boys' basement. These are very much appreciated by the large number of boys on the athletic teams.

Richards School

New toilets were installed in the boys' basement replacing the worn and obsolete type that had been in operation many years.

An additional white enamel sink was installed in the domestic arts room. There had been only one sink available for all the girls who have to use it.

Primary School

The playground back of the building had been so washed away that jagged rocks and bricks protruded in large numbers.

It really was a rather dangerous place for children to play. Accordingly the ground was resurfaced and covered with a coat of road oil. The resulting surface is much better for playground purposes.

The North Newport School was painted outside and inside.

FINANCES

In the table giving comparisons of the school expenditures for three years it will be noticed that the proposed expenditures for 1941-1942 are not much larger than the other two years. The increase is largely accounted for by the fact that we have an additional teacher in the Primary School to take care of the large enrollment there. The appropriation requested is larger than in the two previous years because increased expenditures in the present school year will not provide any appreciable cash balance to be carried over for 1941-42. When the present school year ('40-41) started we had a balance of $3,814.36. The increased expenditures mentioned are largely due to the additional teacher, the construction of a room in the Primary School basement, the resurfacing of the yard at the Primary School, and the establishing of a new transportation route for children on the Ryders Corner road.

The successful operation of the schools is due to the sound judgment of the School Board, the effective cooperation of the teachers, and the faithful work of the janitors who make it physically possible to hold school sessions.

Respectfully submitted,

ALFRED W. SMITH,
Superintendent of Schools

REPORT OF THE HEADMASTER OF TOWLE HIGH SCHOOL

January 1, 1941

Superintendent A. W. Smith,
School District,
Newport, New Hampshire.

Dear Sir:

It is my privilege to report to you on the educational progress of the past year at Towle High School. A supplement of statistical tables is attached which includes the following:

Table I	Enrollment by Grades
Table II	Tuition Pupils
Table III	Attendance Record
Table IV	Test Record
Table V	Honors List—Class of 1940
Table VI	Perfect Attendance 1939-40
Table VII	Post-Secondary Statistics
Table VIII	Financial Report of Student Activities

While it is perhaps too early to draw any definite conclusions, there is considerable evidence to show that the changes in our curricula during the past two or three years were entirely justified. A reduction in the amount of maladjustment and failure which has already been noted may serve to reduce the number of pupils leaving school. Coupled with this, an increasingly better performance on scholastic achievement tests already gives added proof that we are moving in the proper direction.

For the third successive year, we have conducted an Orientation Day for the eighth grade pupils from the surrounding towns. This program, which combines testing with opportunities of mutual acquaintance, has greatly improved the opening of the school year and the work of the ninth grade pupils as they begin their high school careers.

Continued interest and enthusiasm have been noted in the progress of our musical organizations, with especially fine performances from the Newport School Band and the High School Glee Club.

The Thirty-Sixth Annual Fairbanks Junior Prize Speaking Contest was well received by an appreciative audience. The winners were as follows: First, Miss Maude Cutting; second, Miss Margaret Gardner; third, William Hoyt. The Misses Irene Holland and Elizabeth Rollins, winners in the Junior Prize Speaking Contest of the previous year, won third place honors in the Interscholastic Contest at the University of New Hampshire, competing in the original oration and humorous divisions, respectively.

The outstanding performance during the past year was unquestionably that of capturing first honors in the State Scholarship Contest in which seventy-three high schools were represented. Our teams, composed of members of the Class of 1940, took first place in Chemistry and second place in United States History, to produce the following point totals: First, Towle High School, eight points; second, Laconia High School, seven points; third, Keene and Goffstown, six points each; fourth, Hanover, Dover, Amherst, Alstead, Gorham and Orford, five points each.

Looking to the future, there are two problems that deserve our serious consideration; namely, the retention of teachers, and vocational training for our youth.

The record of scholastic achievement made by our high school as measured by the success of its graduates in college, the standard achievement tests, and state-wide competition, is in a considerable degree the result of good teaching. This good teaching in turn is largely the product of experienced men and women on the faculty. While it is perhaps impossible to retain the most efficient teachers indefinitely, we should, nevertheless, compensate them adequately so as to retain as long as possible the benefits of the experience which they have acquired here. I know that no thinking citizen would want the standards of our schools impaired through unwise economies in teachers' salaries.

To the best of my knowledge, this is the only town of its size in the state that does not offer its high school pupils a complete four-year training course in Industrial Arts. Table VII in the statistical supplement below shows that during the past five years approximately thirty-four per cent of our high school graduates have gone on to take post-secondary school training. The other sixty-six per cent are turned loose upon the community, many of them without specific skills and consequently without anything to offer employers other than a general high school training. We have a manual training department which is in no way adequate to offer such training as these young people deserve. I firmly believe that in solving the problem we should make available an opportunity for specific training in useful mechanical skill, whether it be woodworking, automotive or mechanical engineering, or general shop training. This training should be extended beyond the school to anyone in the community to whom such training would be of value.

In a period when the national outlook is overshadowed by European conflict and when many Americans are worried lest we lose the democratic liberties which we have enjoyed through the years, I feel that the community should know that considerable emphasis is being placed upon teaching the ideals of democracy. The people of high school age have undertaken a study of these problems in a manner which should leave no doubt as to the future security of our American institutions.

We are profoundly grateful to the parents and citizens who, through their loyal support and cooperation, have made it possible for us to report a year of splendid progress.

Respectfully submitted,

E. M. PERKINS, Headmaster

NO-SCHOOL SIGNAL

When the weather is so bad that it is inadvisable for children to attend school, the no-school signal will be sounded by the fire whistle at 7:30 in the morning. The signal is 2-2-2. When it is necessary to close school in the morning it will mean that school sessions will be omitted all day. It would be practically impossible to get bus and tuition pupils to attend an afternoon session only.

In addition to the fire signal the electric lights, through the courtesy of the New Hampshire Public Service Company, will be turned on for a few minutes at the time the no-school signal is sounded.

On no-school days a pre-arranged system of telephoning gives notice to those who transport school children, to teachers, and as far as possible, to out-of-town tuition pupils. Persons who are doubtful about the no-school signal should call the superintendent or some other member of the school department rather than the fire station. Unnecessary calling of the fire station might interfere with emergency calls which should reach the fire department quickly.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

Superintendent of Schools,
Newport, N. H.

Dear Sir:

It is again my privilege to report to you briefly the work done and the progress made in caring for the health of Newport's school children. Teeth, tonsils, and eyes have been examined as usual and very many corrections have been made. This work has been supported in a large degree by the Newport Chapter of the American Red Cross. All schools have been visited regularly. Home visits to parents have been made as needed. A strong effort has been made to see that children have been properly fed and clothed, kept clean and free from disease and parasites, when they come to school.

The milk fund operated as last year has served 72 pupils. In addition to this, of late in the Richards Building, thanks to the Surplus Commodity Corporation of the Federal Government, free supplements to the noon-day lunch have been served. To date apples, grapefruit, raisins, and peaches are some of the foods furnished.

The cooperation of the pupils, parents, and teachers has been a source of satisfaction and pleasure. May I express to you in closing, my gratitude for your help and assistance?

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA DONOVAN, R. N.
